

Dr. Olga Zimina Invites us today...

Today in Adult Education: Stephen Spinelli, director of the chancel choir and co-founder of the ONEcomposer, discusses Florence Price's Song of Hope, which will be featured during the Sunday, May 15 worship service. When the Chicago Symphony played her Symphony in E minor in 1933, Price became the first Black woman composer to earn a major symphonic premiere in this country. The Song of Hope, for which she wrote both the words and the music, was Price's first composition for orchestra, and that she features a choir and soloists is a testament to her connection to the power of music to illustrate text. A proud Presbyterian and a virtuosic organist, Price's connection to the church is well documented.

Song of Hope was premiered in March of 2022, 92 years after its completion, by members of the Cornell University, Ithaca High School, and Ithaca College music programs as part of ONEcomposer's celebration of Price's life and legacy. The Chancel Choir's performance will be the first public performance of this work in a chamber arrangement for choir and organ. Please join us in Dodd Hall to learn more about Florence Price, the history of her Song of Hope, and the ongoing efforts to resurrect historically excluded excellence that are underway.

---

The Service Auction is coming up on June 12, and we need your donations to make it great! Give an hour of yard work, a painting lesson, a custom mug, or whatever you can think up. Fill out a donation card in the Narthex, or online at bit.ly/FPCIService22 or on the church website. Donations are due by May 29.

Dr. Olga Zimina Invites us today...

Today in Adult Education: Stephen Spinelli, director of the chancel choir and co-founder of the ONEcomposer, discusses Florence Price's Song of Hope, which will be featured during the Sunday, May 15 worship service. When the Chicago Symphony played her Symphony in E minor in 1933, Price became the first Black woman composer to earn a major symphonic premiere in this country. The Song of Hope, for which she wrote both the words and the music, was Price's first composition for orchestra, and that she features a choir and soloists is a testament to her connection to the power of music to illustrate text. A proud Presbyterian and a virtuosic organist, Price's connection to the church is well documented.

Song of Hope was premiered in March of 2022, 92 years after its completion, by members of the Cornell University, Ithaca High School, and Ithaca College music programs as part of ONEcomposer's celebration of Price's life and legacy. The Chancel Choir's performance will be the first public performance of this work in a chamber arrangement for choir and organ. Please join us in Dodd Hall to learn more about Florence Price, the history of her Song of Hope, and the ongoing efforts to resurrect historically excluded excellence that are underway.

---

The Service Auction is coming up on June 12, and we need your donations to make it great! Give an hour of yard work, a painting lesson, a custom mug, or whatever you can think up. Fill out a donation card in the Narthex, or online at bit.ly/FPCIService22 or on the church website. Donations are due by May 29.

Dr. Olga Zimina Invites us today...

Today in Adult Education: Stephen Spinelli, director of the chancel choir and co-founder of the ONEcomposer, discusses Florence Price's Song of Hope, which will be featured during the Sunday, May 15 worship service. When the Chicago Symphony played her Symphony in E minor in 1933, Price became the first Black woman composer to earn a major symphonic premiere in this country. The Song of Hope, for which she wrote both the words and the music, was Price's first composition for orchestra, and that she features a choir and soloists is a testament to her connection to the power of music to illustrate text. A proud Presbyterian and a virtuosic organist, Price's connection to the church is well documented.

Song of Hope was premiered in March of 2022, 92 years after its completion, by members of the Cornell University, Ithaca High School, and Ithaca College music programs as part of ONEcomposer's celebration of Price's life and legacy. The Chancel Choir's performance will be the first public performance of this work in a chamber arrangement for choir and organ. Please join us in Dodd Hall to learn more about Florence Price, the history of her Song of Hope, and the ongoing efforts to resurrect historically excluded excellence that are underway.

---

The Service Auction is coming up on June 12, and we need your donations to make it great! Give an hour of yard work, a painting lesson, a custom mug, or whatever you can think up. Fill out a donation card in the Narthex, or online at bit.ly/FPCIService22 or on the church website. Donations are due by May 29.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM.

This insert provides a more detailed outline of the Sacrament of Baptism section of the service.

Clerk: On behalf of the Session, I present Jonah Robert Justice, son of Deborah Ruth Justice, to receive the sacrament of Baptism.

THE BAPTISMAL QUESTIONS ARE ASKED.

Leader: Do you, as members of the church of Jesus Christ, promise to guide and nurture Jonah, by word and deed, with love and prayer, encouraging him to know and follow Christ and be a faithful member of Christ's church? Do you? (We do.)

Leader: With the whole church, let us confess our faith in the words of the Apostles Creed:

* All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, from whence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy universal church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

HYMN #483: "Dearest Jesus, We Are Here"

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER.

THE BAPTISM IS PERFORMED.

The PC(USA) mutually recognizes baptisms from other Christian denominations and groups using the Trinitarian Formula: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

CONGREGATIONAL WELCOME:

With joy and thanksgiving we welcome you into Christ's church, to grow with us and share in his ministry. May this day be a seed sown in God's love among us, For we are all one in Christ, God's children together.

*The service continues in the bulletin.
Join us for cake and fellowship time after the service!*

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM.

This insert provides a more detailed outline of the Sacrament of Baptism section of the service.

Clerk: On behalf of the Session, I present Jonah Robert Justice, son of Deborah Ruth Justice, to receive the sacrament of Baptism.

THE BAPTISMAL QUESTIONS ARE ASKED.

Leader: Do you, as members of the church of Jesus Christ, promise to guide and nurture Jonah, by word and deed, with love and prayer, encouraging him to know and follow Christ and be a faithful member of Christ's church? Do you? (We do.)

Leader: With the whole church, let us confess our faith in the words of the Apostles Creed:

* All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, from whence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy universal church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

HYMN #483: "Dearest Jesus, We Are Here"

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER.

THE BAPTISM IS PERFORMED.

The PC(USA) mutually recognizes baptisms from other Christian denominations and groups using the Trinitarian Formula: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

CONGREGATIONAL WELCOME:

With joy and thanksgiving we welcome you into Christ's church, to grow with us and share in his ministry. May this day be a seed sown in God's love among us, For we are all one in Christ, God's children together.

*The service continues in the bulletin.
Join us for cake and fellowship time after the service!*

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM.

This insert provides a more detailed outline of the Sacrament of Baptism section of the service.

Clerk: On behalf of the Session, I present Jonah Robert Justice, son of Deborah Ruth Justice, to receive the sacrament of Baptism.

THE BAPTISMAL QUESTIONS ARE ASKED.

Leader: Do you, as members of the church of Jesus Christ, promise to guide and nurture Jonah, by word and deed, with love and prayer, encouraging him to know and follow Christ and be a faithful member of Christ's church? Do you? (We do.)

Leader: With the whole church, let us confess our faith in the words of the Apostles Creed:

* All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, from whence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy universal church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

HYMN #483: "Dearest Jesus, We Are Here"

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER.

THE BAPTISM IS PERFORMED.

The PC(USA) mutually recognizes baptisms from other Christian denominations and groups using the Trinitarian Formula: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

CONGREGATIONAL WELCOME:

With joy and thanksgiving we welcome you into Christ's church, to grow with us and share in his ministry. May this day be a seed sown in God's love among us, For we are all one in Christ, God's children together.

*The service continues in the bulletin.
Join us for cake and fellowship time after the service!*